GRIMROCK CASTLE

Rich in History...

Grimrock Castle has been home to prestigious kings and their families since early medieval times. Since the first settlements in this region, the castle has been extended and remastered multiple times. Thus, it has a distinguished personality that reflects the needs and demands of its owners. There are more than one hidden rooms and passages throughout the castle, and in particular, the dungeons are a maze in which it is easy to get lost. At the same time, the living quarters show the extravagant lifestyle of the royal family.

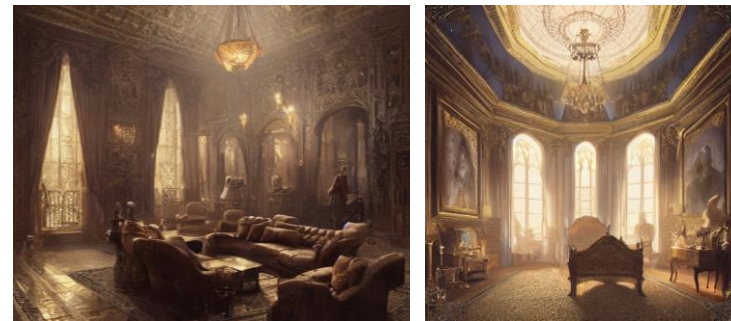

... and Astonishing Artwork

The artworks from various eras were often created specifically in dedication to the current rulers and purposes within the castle. In particular, the enormous renaissance paintings in the art gallery are a spectacular sight. Numerous historical and religious characters are displayed and even the keenest eye will find new details.

Timeless Architecture...

From the medieval rooftop shingles to the extravagant royal bed chambers, the impressive great hall and the courtyard – Your trip to Grimrock Castle will take you on a journey to the past.

... and Unsolved Mysteries

Many famous kings resided in Grimrock Castle, but the most commonly known is King Aldric due to his tragic and very mysterious demise. King Aldric was found poisoned...

Until today, historians do not agree upon the circumstances of the king's death. There are four main suspects, who had motives and opportunity, but the murder is still a mystery. It is said, King Aldric's ghost still roams the castle in search of his murderer.
